

If you are interested in working with Zenju Earthlyn Manuel, she has several ways by which you can receive the clear teachings that apply to your life. Please contact Unique Holland (uniq.grace@gmail.com) for an introductory session that will explain the process. After it is discerned that there is an alignment and clear gateway for giving and receiving the teachings you will receive an ongoing schedule or one-time session based on your choice of focus. See below for choices. You can select one focus from Path A or B or create a combination from both paths. A financial offering will be decided before your first session. Sessions can be by phone, Skype, or face-to-face. You may invite an interested friend to join you on this walk and divide your financial contribution. You can also use the contact page on the website zenju.org.
